

SULEMAN
ROSHAN
MEDICAL COLLEGE TANDO ADAM

RESEARCH POLICY

AND

GUIDELINES

SULEMAN ROSHAN MEDICAL COLLEGE AND HOSPITAL

TANDO ADAM

This is formally reiterate the Research Policy of Suleman Roshan Medical College Tando Adam which applies to undergraduate and postgraduate students, compliance with the following guidelines is mandatory to ensure ethical standards, academic integrity, and institutional recognition of all research activities.

1. Faculty Supervision

- No research activity may be initiated without the guidelines and supervision of an officially designated faculty member.

2. Ethical Approval

- All research projects must obtain prior approval from the Institutional Review Board (IRB)/Ethics Committee.
- Projects conducted without this approval will not be recognized by the institution.

3. Original Research

- Students are encouraged to undertake original research that contributes meaningfully to scientific knowledge and community health.

4. Conference Participation & Travel

- Any student intending to present research, attend or travel for conference must inform the Department of Research in writing.

Prior approval from the Principal is mandatory.

5. Research Publication

- During the course of their studies at Suleman Roshan Medical College Tando Adam students are expected to publish at least two (02) research papers to journals recognized by the Higher Education Commission (HEC) and Pakistan Medical & Dental Council (PMDC).

6. Non-Compliance and Penalties

- Failure to notify or obtain necessary approvals prior to attending or presenting at a conference will result in disciplinary action.
- The concerned faculty supervisor will also be issued a show-cause notice in such cases.

All the students and faculty members are instructed to strictly adhere to above policies. This framework is designed to uphold the highest standards of research integrity, ethical compliance, and to ensure due resignation of your scholarly contribution.